February Break Camp 2025

The Fairy Tree of Dooros February 24 (M) – February 28 (F)

Ages: K-6 grade, Counselor in Training ages 14-16 Cost: $360

8:30 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. (Thursday, February 27 performance at 4 p.m.)

Minimum participants: 15

In the heart of a secret Irish forest grows a special tree with magical berries. When a clumsy little fairy named Pinkeen accidentally drops a berry into the human world, he must embark on a quest to find a guardian for the tree. Along the way, we meet Sharvan the giant, a cursed princess named Rosaleen, and her loyal friend Robin the bird. There are many more fun characters in this story, along with music and dances inspired by the music of Solas. More advanced students ages 14-16 are welcome to apply as counselors in training and attend camp for $125, see our website for the application.

Please note that our short performance will be on Thursday, February 27. We will still have a full camp day on Friday. We will be collaborating with the Aldrich Library to explore stories, games, activities and songs from Ireland.

Each student will be able to attend the Solas performance on Friday, February 28th free of charge. Any additional tickets must be purchased. Please call the box office at 802-476-8188 with any questions!

Financial Aid Information

The Barre Opera House strives to make it's camps accessible for children of all backgrounds. We offer scholarships to as many families and students in need as possible. Scholarships are limited and based on a sliding fee schedule and are awarded on a first-come first-served basis. Scholarships are not guaranteed, and require prior approval by Barre Opera House staff.

We request that financial aid applicants provide proof of income with this application, specifically pages 1 and 2 of your most recent 1040 Federal tax return or combined family W-2's. See "Sliding Fee Schedule" on page 4 for scholarship income guidelines.

Student Section:

What are you looking forward to most about this camp?

What do you think will be the most challenging thing about camp?

Tell us little about yourself:

The teaching staff of Barre Opera House youth theater workshop experiences will strive to honor and celebrate the individual while providing structure, boundaries, and reasonable expectations for individual and group behavior and cooperation. All students will participate in the creation of community guidelines, and will be expected to abide by those group expectations in an effort to create a safe space for exploration and creativity for everyone.

COVID Precautions

The Barre Opera House will follow all required COVID recommendations set forth by the State of Vermont and the CDC at the time Theater Camps start. We will require all participants in camp to follow those state recommendations to allow all participants to remain safe.

Release of Liability

As consideration for my child (or children), being permitted by Barre Opera House to participate in the youth theater workshops in February, 2025:

I understand that as a participant, my child may be climbing on and off of stage and set pieces, as well as moving from the lobby to the stage and to the dressing rooms. I further understand that my child may be running, jumping, dancing and performing other varied movements on stage. I understand that my child may be running, jumping, dancing near moveable set pieces. I assume all risks and hazards with such participation including transportation to and from rehearsals and performances, and hereby waive, release, absolve and indemnify and agree to hold harmless, Barre Opera House and its organizers, sponsors, supervisors, and participants for any claim arising out of accidental injury to my child. My signature indicates that I have read, understand, and agree to the terms of this Release of Liability. I hereby assume all risks of personal injury and property damage that may result from any Barre Opera House Youth Theater activity.
