Rhode Island School of Design, 1963 B.S.

University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, 1967 M.A.T.

Biography

After graduating from Rhode Island School of Design and receiving a master's degree at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, she moved to northern Vermont where she has lived and worked ever since as a teacher, dairy farmer, museum curator and painter.

She has exhibited throughout Vermont and New England as well as in juried shows in Wisconsin, New York, Kentucky and Pennsylvania. Her work was featured prominently in the "Art of Vermont" exhibit which toured state-wide, and in two "Of Land and Local" exhibits in Burlington VT, and is in many private collections.
